

Local
Agents
Serving
Main Street
America<sup>SM</sup>

As PIA National introduces the Laptop Protective Services (LPS) program to agents, you may be asking yourself:

Does my state have security breach legislation in place?

- Below is a quick list of those states that do and do not have such legislation in place.
Please note: This list is subject to change and includes references to general security breach legislation applying to most business entities, regardless of industry. Each state may have additional requirements that apply to insurance entities doing business in the state.
- LPS has a number of articles & resources available on their website which is accessible via link from PIA National's website at <http://www.pianet.com/LaptopProtectiveServices>

Here is a direct link to one such resource, from the National Conference of State Legislatures, which includes links to each state's security breach notification laws:

<http://www.ncsl.org/IssuesResearch/TelecommunicationsInformationTechnology/SecurityBreachNotificationLaws/tabid/13489/Default.aspx>

States without Security Breach Legislation:

Alabama
Kentucky
Mississippi
New Mexico
South Dakota

States with Security Breach Legislation:

(Agents in these states should consider signing up for LPS if they use laptops.)

Alaska	Illinois	Nebraska	Rhode Island
Arizona	Indiana	Nevada	South Carolina
Arkansas	Iowa	New Hampshire	Tennessee
California	Kansas	New Jersey	Texas
Colorado	Louisiana	New York	Utah
Connecticut	Maine	North Carolina	Vermont
Delaware	Maryland	North Dakota	Virginia
District of Columbia	Massachusetts	Ohio	Washington
Florida	Michigan	Oklahoma	West Virginia
Georgia	Minnesota	Oregon	Wisconsin
Hawaii	Missouri	Pennsylvania	Wyoming
Idaho	Montana

11/17/09